THE SHIFT

Most of you who read my ezine know, by now, that my life over the past few months has been turned upside down in many ways. Nonetheless, I remain centered and positive and continue to walk the path of joy as I move from one stage to the next.

Yesterday, at my Borrowing Benefits session, I was sharing with those in attendance that what I am starting to understand is that the 2012 shift so many are speaking about these days may well be a planetary shift, but it is also a personal one. So many people I know are going through radical changes in their lives—even to the point of losing everything they once held dear. Why is this happening?

I believe we are in the process of clearing out and reorganizing, just like our planet is. The things that need to be made extinct are falling away as we move into a new age of community and unity. The “dinosaurs” of the past are becoming extinct and wings are emerging for us to soar to new heights.

In the midst of change, many people go straight into fear. They cannot see a bigger picture, so it seems that the world is coming to an end. But it isn't. The world, as always, will survive. Only that which doesn't work in harmony with it is meeting with death.

We are being called forth to serve in new ways. We are being challenged to accept the destiny that lies ahead not with trembling and doubt, but with joy and trust.

But here is the catch...

Don't look too far ahead. If you do, you will likely fall victim to fear. Merely look at the current moment and ask yourself this, “How am I doing today?” More than likely, your answer will be something like, "Well, things have been better, but I'm still here anyway." In acceptance of what is, move to tomorrow...one day at a time.

In the new age, we will not have to "go it alone." We will truly support each other in many ways. No one will be left behind. We will finally understand we are a community of cells on the planet Earth and we must abide by the laws of nature. Nature works in cooperation. So must we.

We CAN know what tomorrow holds, in some sense, however. It holds what we are feeling today. If today we are feeling lack and sadness, it will greet us with the morning sun. If we emit feelings of hope and prosperity, that awaits.

The story of the Native American grandfather and his grandson is a great example.

The grandfather tells the grandson, "There are two wolves battling in my heart. One is fierce and angry and the other is calm and peaceful."

"Which will win?" asks the grandson.

"The one I feed," answers the grandfather.

It does us good to remember that story when times are difficult, because we are constantly feeding The Field vibrations from our hearts. What are you asking for today?

month. I give out at least one free Meta-ET session each time we meet, so if you have been wanting to try it but feel you can't afford it, this is your opportunity. You'll be grateful, I promise!

If you bring TWO guests with you or if you refer a client for a personal session, you win a FREE private session for yourself, so be sure to pay it forward!! (Be sure to let me know if you bring two guests.)

"You'll be glad you attended," says one participant, "because Jodi not only shows you how to let go of the problems and diseases in your life, but she also teaches from her own metaphysical background. You'll get much more than your money's worth and we have a lot of fun, as well."

Using Meta-ET (TM), we understand how our inner beliefs are mirrored in the 3-D world that appears to be around and outside us. We recognize how and why our disconnection beliefs show up as problems and diseases in our bodies, as well. Tapping on the meridian points, while focusing on the issue of disconnection, we release the energy of that block, allowing limiting, non-serving beliefs to fall away.

In December, I will continue a series of talks I'm giving on Dr. Bruce Lipton's latest book, "Spontaneous Evolution." We are discussing how our cultural beliefs came to be and where we are in the evolutionary process of our planet. Lipton looks at our cellular community as a component of fractal geometry and shows us a brilliant plan for an amazing future as we go through the shift into a new age.

If you would like to schedule a private Meta-ET (TM) session, please email or call me for a free 15 minute consultation. We can then determine the best time and place to get together for your freedom session. Remember, these can be done in person or on the phone.

I'm currently offering sessions at the rate of 3 for $100, or one for $40.00. It's a great price, so be sure to schedule yours soon!!
